

OPEN CALL FOR APPLICATION OF STUDENTS FOR PARTICIPATION IN THE LEGAL CLINIC ON INTERNATIONAL PROTECTION – ASYLUM, REFUGEES AND STATELESSNESS

The Faculty of Law of Public University “Kadri Zeka” in Gjiilan/Gnjilane in cooperation with Civil Rights Program in Kosovo (CRPK) funded by UNHCR is organizing a Legal Clinic on International Protection – Asylum, Refugees and Statelessness.

The Legal Clinic will take place from 11/11/2024 to 13/12/2024 at the Public University “Kadri Zeka” premises. During the five-weeks Clinic, there will be courses on International Protection, simulations of cases and ongoing discussions, and organized visit to the asylum center. Students will engage in role-playing exercises to apply refugee and statelessness status determination procedures in various scenarios.

The Legal Clinic aims to provide knowledge on International Refugee Law, with special emphasis to the principle of non-refoulement, refugee status determination procedures, and statelessness, including administrative and judicial procedure of international protection claims.

Students will be provided necessary reading materials in advance and certificates of participation upon completion of the Legal Clinic.

Conditions for application:

1. Active student of the III or IV academic year in the Faculty of Law.
2. Average grade over 8 (eight).
3. Knowledge of the English language is preferable.

Documents for application:

1. CV.
2. Evidence of regular student status / Students Certificate.
3. Grade certificate for internal purposes.

The application should be submitted to Ms. Egzona Rexhepi, A. D. of the office for Projects from 09:00 – 15:00, latest by 4/11/2024, at 16:00 hrs.

Selected students will be informed latest by 07/11/2024.

The five-weeks Clinic will commence on 12/11/2024.
